

Misc. Boutique

Missy Baber couldn't be happier to return to St. Pete and again be part of a business community with such fantastic neighbors. She recently opened Misc. Boutique in Calusa Commons, at the corner of 22nd Street and 1st Avenue South. Her previous shop in Salt Lake City, Utah, was recognized in both local and national publications. "A wardrobe that caters to the climate and season is my focus; working with diverse body types is my knack," she says. "The magic of clothing that fits your body and fits your personality/lifestyle is what I do best." If you love shopping, you will appreciate the well curated collection. However, even if you hate shopping, you will appreciate the wardrobe consultants, closet clean-outs, and personal shopping services that also are available. Misc. Boutique is open Tuesday-Saturday, 11ish- 5 PM. Follow her on Facebook and Instagram, and contact her directly at misc.boutique@gmail.com.

Jeff Schorr