600 23rd St N.

My nomination for the Best Garden Award is for property at 600 23rd St N. When we first moved in, this house sat empty for a couple of years. The grass used to grow as tall as the picket fence and it was scary to walk your dog on the sidewalk. The city would come out every now and then to mow, but in between, neighbors would take turns mowing. The new owners have been doing an amazing job fixing up this property. — Sara Quick
