

Didriks / Flickr / Creative Commons

Janet's Antiques

2545 Central Avenue
Saint Petersburg, Florida
727-823-5700

Janet's Antiques is always fun. They carry everything from antique clothes to furniture and vintage finds. An hour or more would be useful when visiting Janet's since there is so much to look at and discover. Bring your wallet, you will want everything. Bring your camera phone, too, you have to try some of the clothes on.

Vintage Designs by Lillie Victoria

2530 Central Avenue
Saint Petersburg, Florida
727-709-2093

Vintage Designs by Lillie Victoria is a fun shoppe filled to the top with shabby chic finds and lovely french antiques. Do not miss Vintage Designs by Lillie Victoria.

The White Elephant

2536 Central Avenue
Saint Petersburg, Florida
727-465-4527

The White Elephant is one of the coolest shoppes. There is a wide variety of furniture, accessories and art inside— but they also have a pretty snazzy outside area in the back. The store just keeps on unfolding and offering a little more as you walk through it. Filled with the most unique items, the White Elephant is worth the visit.

jessie essex / Flickr / Creative Commons

Buster's Antiques

2538 Central Avenue
Saint Petersburg, Florida
727-202-8961

Buster's offers vintage furniture and pieces with a mid-century modern twist and a dash of Asian influence. They also offer workshops designed around Annie Sloan. Why not take a workshop then head over to Taco Bus for lunch?

The Iron Pelican Antiques and Home Decor

1920 1st Avenue South
Saint Petersburg, Florida
727-235-0068

The Iron Pelican has everything you can imagine and I am not just saying that. They have furniture, lighting, accessories, artwork and more. They sell these items in rehabbed condition, shabby, chic or natural condition. Everyone in the area knows about the Iron Pelican because it has great prices and quality products. Conveniently located on 1st Ave South— there is no reason not to stop.

The Brocante Market

2200 2nd Avenue South
Saint Petersburg, Florida
727-555-5555

The true shopaholics know about the Brocante Market. The Brocante, as it is known by the locals, is one of the coolest experiences ever. Literally watch items get purchased and carried out as you are walking around the market. People go to the Brocante in the mood to buy, so if you see something you like you need to grab it immediately. You go to the Brocante with an item in mind and grab it as soon as you see it because it will not be there for another five minutes. They specialize in vintage and anything goes.

Emily Carlin / Flickr / Creative Commons

Latest Posts

Audra Christian

Audra M. Christian is an avid writer, and a knower of all things in Tampa Bay. She is a native St Pete saint and lives in St Pete, Florida with her husband, motley crew of daughters and tiny little maltese, Zsazsa Gabor.