

Thanks to Urban Brew & BBQ

A big Thank You goes out to Andy Salyards, owner of Urban Brew & BBQ, for being the January food sponsor of our monthly neighborhood meetings! Andy certainly got the New Year started off right by supplying a sampling of one of their "IPA" draft beers, which was simply fantastic. Of course, this was used to "wash down" their delicious pulled pork that is a mainstay favorite of Urban. A great combination! The Urban Brew & BBQ is the only place in town serving craft beers with craft BBQ. And don't forget the "sides from scratch" and "specialty desserts" as well! Visit Andy and the crew at 1939 Central Ave. Another location on Central Ave will be opening soon. For more information, call 727-822-8919. When you visit Urban Brew & BBQ, don't forget to tell them, "HKNA sent me!"
