

The St. Pete. Opera company made performances during the day at their new venue, but they also made an impromptu performance at our BungalowFest Moonlight Party right on the front porch:

At the end of their performance, BungalowFest chairman Chad Bratschi , thanked them and everyone else for coming and making the event a huge success.